TMCCP Certification and Recertification Requirements/ Academic Misconduct

TMCCP CERTIFICATION AND RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS/ ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

A. CERTIFICATION PROGRAM OVERVIEW AND HISTORY

1. Overview and Introduction

The certification program is a professional development program with college/university-level courses. Personal development is as much a goal of the certification as career development—the municipal clerk gains a greater sense of confidence and self-esteem as professional growth and development occur.

The Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program provides current insight into such areas as public relations, interpersonal communications, and community organization which will improve on-the-job ability and enhance the clerk personally and individually. Increasing personal awareness, flexibility, knowledge, and innovations result in new professionalism.

Successful completion of TMCCP requires approximately 200 hours of individual home study and online homework; examinations over each of the four courses; and attendance at eight seminars. Some enrollees complete the program in as few as three years; some take several years. There is a 10-year limit to complete the Certification Program; after this the enrollee must start over. Paid fees do not transfer.

Recertification requires an additional 80 hours of professional development course work every five years, including attendance at six seminars and a selection of educational opportunities to earn points towards recertification.

Currently, hundreds of municipal clerks are enrolled in TMCCP and are working toward certification or recertification. Over 1,000 enrollees have completed the extensive certification program.

2. The Certification Program Background

The Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program began in 1967 at the University of North Texas from a study initiated by the Association of City Clerks and Secretaries of Texas, now Texas Municipal Clerks Association, Inc., and prepared by Dorothy Byrd. Ms. Byrd continued as the executive director until her retirement in December 1993.

TMCCP is the only university-level professional education program for city clerks and city secretaries in Texas and is the third oldest of such programs in the country. It is administered by the Texas Municipal Clerks Association, Inc., located at the University of North Texas. The certification program is recognized by the International Institute of Municipal Clerks. Through the years many changes have occurred, improving the program and increasing public recognition. The 69th Texas Legislature adopted H.B. 2092, which gives State sanction of the program and provides that certification will be issued to each person who successfully completes the program.

3. Goals of the Certification Program

The program seeks to establish certain qualifications for fulfilling the office of municipal clerk in order to retain the traditional and rightful standing as an officer of the municipality. The program also aims to provide the municipal clerk with the knowledge and methods to execute the duties of his/her office, as well as develop familiarity with the theory and practices of one's local government.

B. CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

The Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program is a self-paced distance learning program that consists of four courses. To complete certification an enrollee must meet the following requirements:

1. Homework: enrollees complete four modules of homework in each of the four courses. The homework is completed and submitted for grading via the online learning management system.
2. Examinations: enrollees must pass an examination over the homework in each of the four courses.
3. Seminars: enrollees must attend two full TMCCP seminars (12 hours each) for each of the four courses.
 - a. Enrollees may use a series of six TMCCP webinars to fulfill one seminar attendance requirement once during each certification (effective January 2020).
 - b. Of the eight required TMCCP seminars, two may be attended virtually (effective January 2022.)

Five of the required seminars must be attended in-person. Three may be attended via distance learning (one series of six webinars and/or two virtual seminars).

Note: We reserve the right to limit the number of attendees at in-person seminars, virtual seminars, and webinars.

4. Three years of paid membership in TMCA.

Since the program is self-paced, completion times vary. There is a time limit of 10 years to complete the Certification Program, but completion of the Program can occur as early as two years.

C. RECERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

After an enrollee has graduated from the Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program, recertification is required every five years to maintain the Texas Registered Municipal Clerk (TRMC) status. Recertification is a continuation of the philosophy and the fact that H.B. 2029 recognizes, supports, and awards Texas Municipal Clerks as key professionals in municipal government. H.B. 2029 requires that "a person who holds a certificate issued under this section must renew the certificate not later than five years after the date on which the original certificate was issued."

The requirements of recertification are as follows:

1. Enroll in the TMCCP Recertification Program.
2. Be a member of TMCA, Inc., at time of recertification enrollment and maintain continuous membership throughout recertification.
3. Attend the following six TMCCP seminars:
 - 2 TMCCP Advanced Institute Seminars
 - 2 TMCCP Election Law Seminars
 - 2 TMCCP Seminars (other than the Advanced Institute and Election Law Seminars)
 - a. Enrollees may use a series of six TMCCP webinars to fulfill one seminar attendance requirement once during each certification (effective January 2020).

b. Of the six required TMCCP seminars, two may be attended virtually (effective January 2022.)

Three of the required seminars must be attended in-person. Three may be attended via distance learning (one series of six webinars and/or two virtual seminars).

Note: We reserve the right to limit the number of attendees at in-person seminars, virtual seminars, and webinars.

4. Accumulate a minimum of 60 education points: [Submit the Affirmation of Academic Honesty Form with submitted work (see Exhibit A).]

Graduates who do not complete the recertification requirements within the five-year period will lose the TRMC status. Reinstatement must be requested from the Certification Committee (see Chapter 15 E - Reinstatement of Certification).

D. ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

The Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program enforces policies concerning academic misconduct. (These policies have been molded by the policies set forth by the University of North Texas.) See Exhibit A -- TMCCP Policy on Academic Misconduct and Exhibit B – Policy on Academic Conduct for TMCCP Webinars.

EXHIBIT A

TMCCP Policy on Academic Misconduct

Enrollees are subject to discipline for academic misconduct. Academic misconduct includes Academic Dishonesty, which includes but is not limited to:

1. Cheating. The term “cheating” includes, but is not limited to:
 - a. copying or any unauthorized assistance in taking examinations;
 - b. dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments;
 - c. the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a TMCCP staff member or TMCCP enrollee; or

3. Fabrication. Intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise.
4. Facilitating academic dishonesty. Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to violate a provision of the TMCCP Policy on Academic Misconduct.

“Plagiarism and cheating refer to the use of unauthorized books, notes, or otherwise securing help in a test; copying tests, assignments, reports, or term papers; representing the work of another as one's own; collaborating, without authority, with another student during an examination or in preparing academic work; or otherwise practicing scholastic dishonesty.”

Penalty for Academic Misconduct includes:

Dismissal of the enrollee from the Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program.

Rights of an Enrollee Disciplined on Grounds of Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty matters may first be considered by the TMCCP education director, who may assign penalties such as dismissal from the Program and/or denial of the Texas Registered Municipal Clerk Certification. If the enrollee does not accept the decision of the TMCCP education director, the enrollee may have her/his case heard by the TMCA Certification Committee Chair for review of her/his case. If the enrollee does not accept the decision of the TMCA Certification Committee Chair, the enrollee may then have her/his case heard by the TMCA, Inc., Executive Board.

If an enrollee has any questions regarding the TMCCP Policy on Academic Misconduct, please contact the TMCCP office. Telephone: 940-565-3488; email Education Director Dr. Amy Holt, TRMC, at amy.holt@unt.edu; mailing address: 1155 Union Circle #305067, Denton, Texas 76203-5017.

TMCCP Administrative Policies

TMCCP ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES

A. CERTIFICATION PROGRAM MONEY

1. MONEY includes investments, revenues, budgets, cash flow and sales taxes and Internal Revenue Service reporting.
2. INVESTMENTS.
 - (a) All funds including the Permanent Reserve Fund and the Operating Reserve Fund shall be invested in instruments which are guaranteed by the FDIC, the United States or State of Texas. All depositories of funds shall be guaranteed by the FDIC or the NCUA.
 - (b) Funds available for investment are those in the Permanent Reserve Fund and the Operating Reserve Fund which are deemed to be above the immediate cash flow needs to meet operational demands of the Certification Program. This means that money or near-money must be readily available for necessary expenses.
 - (c) Investment decisions shall be made by the TMCCP Budget Officer unless the term is over 18 months. Investments with terms over 18 months shall be approved by the Executive Board via email or at a regularly scheduled meeting. Investment reports shall be made to the Executive Board at each of its regular meetings.
 - (d) Prior to the use of any funds in the Permanent Reserve Fund and the Operating Reserve Fund, the TMCCP Budget Officer shall make a recommendation to the Advisory Management Committee and the Advisory Management Committee in-turn shall make a recommendation to the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall approve the use of such funds by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the entire board membership. If the vote is to be taken at a board meeting and all the members are not present, the President shall obtain a written vote from those being absent. Should time not permit for a meeting, the President shall then submit a written request and voting form to each board member. The board members shall vote and sign the voting form and return to the President within the specified time period.
3. PERMANENT RESERVE FUNDS. The Certification Program Permanent Reserve Fund is restricted to the furtherance of the Certification Program and shall only be used for (a) an unbudgeted emergency expense or (b) to supplement the budget for major publication expenses (a new edition or major revision of the Texas Municipal Election Law Manual, the Texas Municipal Law and Procedure Manual, or the Texas Municipal Clerks Handbook).

Transfer(s) from these funds may be made only upon the affirmative recommendation of the Advisory Management Committee to the TMCA, Inc., Executive Board and the board's affirmative approval.
4. OPERATING RESERVE FUND. There shall be a segregated Operating Reserve Fund in an amount equal to ninety days operating expenditures. The Operating Reserve Fund will be reviewed at the beginning of each fiscal year based upon the then current budget as adopted by the Executive Board. The Operating Reserve Fund shall be adjusted as appropriate to meet the requirements of the current budget. This fund is separate and apart from the Certification Program Permanent Reserve Fund. Monies in the Operating Reserve Fund are subject to the same requirements under the Investments section of this policy. Excess revenues and the Operating Reserve Fund shall be discussed yearly by the Advisory Management Committee and a recommendation based upon projections will be made to the Executive Board. The Executive Board will take action on the use of Excess Revenues at the regular meeting in March when the final audit numbers are reviewed.

5. EQUIPMENT REPLACEMENT AND ACQUISITION FUND. TMCCP shall maintain an Equipment Replacement and Acquisition Fund (ERAF) supported by annual excess revenues over expenditures. Long-range equipment replacement will be discussed by the AMC annually and a recommendation made to the Executive Board for equipment replacement and expenditures.
6. REVENUES. Revenues are derived from seminar fees, manual sales, enrollment fees, exam fees, book loan fees, and shipping and handling fees.

Revenues provide the cash-flow to sustain the annual operating expenses of the program budget.

7. DEPOSITORIES. Any change in depositories shall be approved by the Executive Board. Funds kept in a single depository shall not exceed FDIC and NCUA coverage.
8. BUDGET. The budget serves at least three purposes: (a) forecast of revenues, (b) forecast of expenditures and (c) comparison and control document for fees, charges and expenditures made.

Supporting information shall be furnished with the budget which shall include the estimated fees which will be charged for the various revenue items as well as estimated expenditures for the various budgeted line-items. It shall be understood, however, that the costs of the manuals and the amounts charged for the manuals are most difficult to estimate. Those difficulties are due to lack of advance information relative to the total number of printed pages/sheets required for the completed manuscript. This lack of predetermined information also impacts upon the cost of mailers and postage and manuscript typing.

Other variables may include the payment of honoraria and expenses for speakers. Discretion has to be granted to the TMCCP Budget Director in these matters.

The budget format shall be line-item with appropriate revenue and expenditure codes.

9. UNT COSTS. The budget includes University indirect costs (staff salaries, staff benefits, and maintenance and operation costs).
10. CASH-FLOW. Cash-flow, for our purposes, is defined as monies received from items listed under revenues. This excludes earned income from investments.
11. SALES TAXES. The TMCCP Budget Officer furnishes the CPA with the sales tax information which the CPA in turn files with the State Comptroller's office. TMCCP sales tax information is filed one time per year in January.
12. INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE. The CPA takes all of the income and expenses of both the TMCCP and the TMCA, Inc., and files the annual return. The tax return shall be filed electronically and a copy provided to the Executive Board. The annual return will be presented at the July meeting of the Executive Board.
13. FEDERAL AND STATE REPORTING REQUIREMENTS. All federal and state reporting requirements are filed by the CPA.
14. QUARTERLY REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE REPORTS. The TMCCP Budget Officer will furnish the CPA with TMCCP deposit slips, bank statements and original check stubs every quarter. The CPA will access the online TMCA financials and reports and compile a report of revenues and expenditures for both TMCA and TMCCP, furnishing copies to the TMCCP Budget Officer and Executive Board.
15. ACCOUNTABILITY. The Directors are accountable to the Executive Board for Administrative operations.
16. CASH MANAGEMENT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES. The budget year is a calendar year. However, the calendar year overlaps the university fiscal year.

(a) Fiduciary Duties and Responsibilities

- (1) Duty of Loyalty: The Executive Board, committee members, Directors, and office staff owe an undivided and unqualified loyalty to TMCA, Inc., and TMCCP and their best interests. Elected and appointed leaders should refrain from engaging in personal activities which would injure or take advantage of the association or organization. Directors, officers, committee members, and office staff are prohibited from using their position to further their private interests.
- (2) Duty of Care: The Executive Board, committee members, Directors, and office staff must act with the same care as an ordinarily prudent person would employ. Their duties should be performed in good faith, in an informed and deliberate manner, and in the best interests of this association and educational organization. They need to reasonably inform themselves of the business and activities of the association and the educational organization and other relevant matters necessary to make decisions. Officers and staff should act with proper stewardship and conduct all business honestly, with integrity, and in compliance with legal restrictions.
- (3) Duty of Obedience: The Executive Board, committee members, Directors, and office staff will perform their duties in accordance with applicable statutes and the terms of the organization's charter, bylaws, and policies. This requires a general familiarity with the association's bylaws and policies.

- (1) Policy. The TMCCP Budget Officer shall hold the responsibility of creating and monitoring the TMCCP accounts with the assistance and recommendations from the Executive Board.
- (2) Procedure.

 - b) The TMCCP Budget Officer shall provide a budget report at each regular meeting of the Executive Board.
 - c) All TMCCP accounts (checking, savings, certificates of deposit) shall be opened or closed only by the TMCCP Budget Officer or designee as appointed by the TMCA, Inc., Executive Board. The TMCCP Budget Officer is authorized to take these actions by the Executive Board as evidenced by a meeting agenda item and recorded in the minutes.
 - d) Bank reconciliations will be prepared on a monthly basis by a person independent of cash receipting, disbursing and recording duties.
 - e) Funds in the checking account shall be kept at reasonable levels to assure maximum investment of excess funds. Excess revenue shall be deposited into the reserve and permanent reserve funds as directed by the Executive Board.
 - f) Bank statements, bank reconciliations, CPA reports, receipts and financial records shall be retained for 7 years (current year plus previous 7 years) and then destroyed by shredding.
 - g) Statements on all accounts shall be examined for the most recent 12-month period at the November Executive Board meeting. (Funds kept in a single

Legal Opinions

LEGAL OPINIONS

A. ACTION MINUTES

One of the most important governing documents for the Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program is the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. The act specifies in some detail the actions which require approval of the Executive Board and membership but do not specify the required contents of the minutes. The legal requirement is satisfied, however, only when two actions occur: 1) the required actions are taken and 2) there is evidence (preferably in the minutes) that the action was properly taken.

The Bylaws of the Texas Municipal Clerks Association, Incorporation specify that the Secretary is to Record minutes of all meetings of Executive Board and/or membership, and keep in official binder. Minutes will be detailed, and all resolutions, appointments, policies, actions, etc., will be typed in the body of the minutes of the Association (no attachments) to avoid loss of documents important to the Association and reviewed by the IRS.

Thus, in order to satisfy the requirements of the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the Bylaws of the Texas Municipal Clerks Association, Incorporated and the non-profit status monitored by the IRS, the organization needs to have well drafted minutes.

The best guidelines I have found for the drafting of minutes are contained in Robert's Rules of Order. The following recommendations are based upon my experience and the recommendations of Roberts Rule's of Order.

1. The life of an organization is reflected in its minutes. All important actions taken should be easily traceable through the minutes of the organization.
2. Care should be taken that the minutes are well presented. Sloppy minutes give the impression (perhaps not based upon fact) that the organization does not pay attention to detail.
3. Minutes should mainly reflect actions taken at the meeting, not what was said.
4. The first paragraph of the minutes should contain the following information:
 - (a) type of meeting (regular, special)
 - (b) name of the organization
 - (c) date, time and place of the meeting,
 - (d) presence of chair and secretary (or their substitutes)
 - (e) approval of minutes of the previous meeting (either as presented or as corrected).
5. The body of the minutes should contain the following information in separate number paragraphs:
 - (a) all main motions, including the name of the mover. (The name of person seconding the motion is option.)
 - (b) the disposition of each motion. ((Only when a count has been ordered should the number of votes on each side be recorded. If the voting is by roll call (which would be most unusual for a board), the names and votes should be recorded. All abstentions from voting should be recorded.))
 - (c) the time of adjournment (in the last numbered paragraph).
6. Minutes should be signed by the secretary. They can also be signed by the president.

7. When in doubt regarding whether to include action (as opposed to "conversation") in the minutes, include only the action taken.

B. LIQUOR LIABILITY

1. General Liability

It is well established in every jurisdiction that an organization can be held liable for its negligence of its employees and agents. The legal rules applicable to negligence recoveries have been well established for most of this century and include:

- * the legal duty to behave as a reasonable, prudent person would behave under the same or similar circumstances;
- * a breach of that duty by a specific act of negligence, meaning a failure to behave as a reasonable prudent person;
- * the breach of duty must be the proximate cause of the injured parties' damages, meaning that the breach must "in fact" cause the damage and the damage or something like it must have been reasonably foreseeable; and
- * damages.

These rules apply to the Texas Municipal Clerks Association, Inc., the same way that they apply to any business or person: in all cases people and organizations are expected to behave as reasonable, prudent people. Whether an organization has failed to exercise due care is a fact question which is typically decided by a jury. There is no easy-to-apply, absolute standard or care prescribed for each situation.

2. Liability for Alcoholic Beverages

The liability of third parties for the negligent acts of intoxicated persons is one of the most confused and controversial legal issues of the day.¹

The common law liability rules discussed in the preceding section originally did not impose liability on a third party for damages caused by the actions of any intoxicated person. Prior to the past several years, most courts imposed liability only on the intoxicated driver, reasoning that the consumption of the liquor, not the providing of it, was the proximate cause of the alcohol related injury.²

However, during the past several years the rule of third party liability for the actions of intoxicated persons has gradually increased through both legislative enactments and judicial decisions.³ Texas has been no exception to this rule.

Effective June 11, 1987, a new Texas statute greatly increased the liability of licensed providers of alcoholic beverages.⁴ The new statute provides that a provider of alcoholic beverages is liable for injuries caused by intoxicated persons provided that it was apparent that the individual being

E.g., see, Coparative Negligence and Dram Shop Law, 62 NOTRE DAME LAW REVIEW 238 (1987).

²This rule was established as early as 1793 in Ashley v. Harrison, 1 Peake 149, 3 Rev. Rep. 686 (Kings Bench 1793).

³El Chico v. Poole, 732 S.W. 2d 306, 310, n. 2 (Texas 1987).

sold, served or provided to was obviously intoxicated to the extent that he presented a clear danger to himself and others, and the intoxication was the proximate cause of the damages.

Very early on, the statute was used aggressively and served as the basis for a $1.25 million settlement in a case brought against a Midland nightclub.⁵

The courts of Texas, too, have shown an increased willingness to impose liability on providers of alcoholic beverages. Prior to the effective date of the new Texas statute, the Supreme Court recognized a common law case of action for innocent third parties who are injured by the negligent and unlawful sale of alcoholic beverages."⁶

Although both the case and the statute discussed above apply only to licensed providers of alcoholic beverages, the language of the case provides important insight for everyone who serves alcoholic beverages:

*Focusing on the carnage inflicted upon innocent victims by drunk drivers, courts have rejected the rationale supporting no liability as outdated and unrealistic and thus, invalid. Injury to a third person is no longer unforeseeable in an age when death and destruction occasioned by drunk driving is so tragically frequent.*⁷

It should be noted that the court previously used a similar rationale to impose liability on an employer who did not provide alcoholic beverages but allowed an obviously intoxicated employee to drive from the workplace.⁸

3. Implications for Non Licensed Providers

Anyone who serves alcoholic beverages should be concerned with the liability issues related to serving alcoholic beverages and the actions of intoxicated person. Based on this conclusion, I would like to offer two "risk management" suggestions:

- (a) The issues of social host liability (that is, the liability of non licensed providers who do not sell liquor but provide it in a social setting) is far from settled. However, it is safe to assume that when providing alcoholic beverages in any setting, the person providing them must behave as a reasonable prudent person under the same or similar circumstances. The attached article offers some tips for meeting this standard.
- (b) The best way for the Texas Municipal Clerks Association, Incorporated to manage the risks associated with serving alcoholic beverages is for the organization to not serve alcoholic beverages. The association should consider sponsoring events where alcohol is served only when the alcohol is provided through a licensed alcoholic beverage provider.

Under Texas law, licensed alcoholic beverage providers are required to train their employees on serving alcoholic beverages responsibly. Thus, the provider trains its employees and through those employees makes all decisions regarding who should be served. The provider will be required to exercise reasonable care and to comply with all laws while serving the alcoholic beverages.

Some organizations have solved the quandary by sponsoring social functions and providing the food. Alcoholic beverages can be provided by a "cash bar" served by a licensed alcoholic beverage provider. The function can then accomplish the goal of the organization (which is usually "networking") while encouraging responsible consumption of alcoholic beverages.

C. ADA Compliance

Regarding the Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program's compliance with applicable anti discrimination laws, I have two suggestions.

1. All material should contain a statement similar to the following:

It is the policy of the Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program and the Texas Municipal Clerks Association, Inc., not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, or veteran status in any of their activities.

2. In material related to brochures and courses, the certification program should include notice of its compliance with the American With Disabilities Act. (Please see my letter to you dated February 20, 1994 for a more complete discussion of the ADA and its applicability to the program):

The Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program, Inc., will make every reasonable effort to make its seminars accessible for the disabled. If you are disabled and will require special facilities or equipment, please let us know at least 10 days in advance of the seminar date.

Based upon the above recommendations, the following statement was adopted:

The Texas Municipal Clerks Certification Program will make every reasonable effort to make its seminars accessible to persons with disabilities. Persons with disabilities requiring special facilities or equipment, please let us know at least 10 days in advance of the seminar date.
